

PPI Grant

Participation in PPI symposium at Summer Institute in Qualitative Research: Putting Theory to Work at Manchester Metropolitan University 10-14th July 2017

The PPI has been invited to present a symposium at the Summer Institute at MMU!

Applications are called for a $3000 grant from PPI for a PPI member to participate in this symposium. The grant money is intended for use in contributing to travel, accommodation and registration costs.

PPI Symposium Title: Researching the Public

Paper 1: Dr. Karen Charman, 'Objects in the Public Sphere'

Paper 2: Assoc. Prof Mary Dixon, 'The matter of the public'

Paper 3: Funded PPI member, paper by grant recipient

This is a competitive process for awarding the grant. Applicants are invited to prepare a 150-word abstract for the third paper to 'fit' inside the symposium as indicated above. Secondly the applicant is required to write approx. 200 words indicating the relevance of their work to PPI and the value to their own work of their attendance at the Summer Institute.

Applicants are encouraged to consider the webpage of the Summer Institute for details:

<http://www.esri.mmu.ac.uk/siqr/index17.php>

Deadline for submission of applications: Thursday 13th April 2017.

All applications will be considered on their merit by a 4 person committee. The successful applicant will be notified by 24th April 2017.

Applications are to be made via email to Dr. Karen Charman:

Karen.Charman@vu.edu.au